Eurotunnel – the quickest way to the continent

EUROTUNNEL

Eurotunnel offer an unrivalled premium service for the short crossing to France especially for the golfer under time pressure to make a tee time. Great value combines with a 35 minute crossing and superfast loading and unloading give you access to the fastest and best way to cross the Channel. We unreservedly recommend Eurotunnel as your best route to the best in Northern French and Belgian Golf. If that is your chosen destination then your golfing package will include a Eurotunnel crossing as a matter of course.

You should also ask us about our fabulous value day trips to France to play golf, travel with Eurotunnel included, of course!

Pas de Calais hotels

Red Fox

Classic 2 star hotel in the very heart of Le Touquet - decent rooms, good breakfast and private garage at a supplement, make this the ideal value base for your trip - the bar underneath has closed and many rooms have been refurbished making it an even better bet. 3 star rooms are now open in the building across the street. A firm favourite with our customers.

Le Touquet

Nouveau Caddy **

Another excellent 2 star hotel in Le Touquet - only 150 yards from the Red Fox but in a much more relaxed location. Rooms are comfortable and well furnished and great value is on offer here.

Le Touquet

Bristol ***

The best value 3 star in Le Touquet centre. It is just off the very heart of town - very comfortable rooms, good position and a smashing bar make this a place to head for. Great value for the excellent quality on offer. Private parking at a supplement.

Le Touquet

Manoir ***

On site hotel to the 2 courses at Le Touquet this fine 3 star hotel suffers only from being a little way outside of town - certainly more than a walk - however if you want to stay put the food is good, as is the bar. Very comfortable spot.

Le Touquet

hotel du Parc ***

Classic golf hotel in Hardelot. Everything about this place says it should be graded higher than its actual 3 stars. Bar and restaurant are great fun and the rooms are very good - bar can be a touch pricey.

Pas de Calais hotels

Hermitage

Newly refurbished 3 star hotel in the pretty little town of Montreuil. Excellent rooms and a new restaurant make this a place to head for - there are plenty of bars and restaurants about in the town.

Montreuil

Univers

Converted Jesuit monastery near town centre. The food is genuinely good in the vaulted restaurant and the rooms are also good - they do vary in size because of the age of the building. The hotel is set in a quiet courtyard 150 yards from the town centre so you get the best of both worlds.

Arras

Holiday Inn Express

Best value hotel in the Pas de Calais – newly built 3 star hotel in the town and above a public car park, very close to the town centre. Rooms are modern and spacious - the restaurant is Ok but there are plenty of good ones on the doorstep. Thoroughly recommended.

Arras

Hotel du Golf

On site hotel at Golf d'Arras. The hotel overlooks the first tee and consists of very good rooms most with terrace or balcony. The hotel has a good bar and restaurant and if you want to play golf and not stray then this is the place for you. It is only a short taxi ride to the town.

Arras

Holiday Inn Express

Same excellent vale as the sister hotel In Arras offering spacious comfortable accommodation close to the centre of the city – bars and restaurants abound in the lively centre – fantastic value especially at weekends.

Pas de Calais Courses

Le Touquet Mer

Excellent but very tough links course in Europe's top 100 courses. Fierce rough, deep bunkers and an almost ever-present wind make this a tough but ever popular test of golf - you'll need to be on your mettle. It's a high quality golf course but don't expect 44 points.

Le Touquet Forest

Sister course to the Mer - less tough and more forgiving parkland course but always well conditioned. It's no pushover but it makes for a good place to play to relax from the rigours of La Mer.

Hardelot Pines

Maybe the archetypal French course and also in Europe's top 100. Tight pine lined fairways, lots of bunkers and quick tricky greens make this delightful course a true test of golf. Always in superb condition and a staunch favourite with our customers.

Hardelot

A newer course than the Pines and a touch less popular but it is no less good - again a top 100 course in . More of a heathland linksy feel to it and it is more open than the pines but has the same magnetic bunkers and slick greens.

Belle Dune

Not old but a captivatingly beautiful course set in the Marquenterre bird sanctuary. The course has been built with enormous care and bogeys (and worse) are easy to come by as the course meanders through dunes and heathland. The few birdie chances need to be grabbed to achieve a score. Not many buggies so reserve in advance. 75th ranked in

St Omer

A genuine championship venue as you would expect from the home of the French PGA. Very nearly 7,000 yards off the back tees, the course is set in undulating meadowland with lots of trees. The water on the course is very well positioned, as are the bunkers and raised greens which demand good approach play for a good score. Buggies available and recommended.

Pas de Calais Courses

Dunkerque

Very good parkland course 15 miles east of Calais. This is a very clever well maintained golf course that will reward you for coming. It is not just a grip it and rip it course - there are some very clever holes that need thought and accuracy to prosper. Recommended.

Arras

Excellent parkland course and fantastic value. The opening stretch features some great water holes - not great expanses but strategically placed ponds and lakes which will demand accurate length and line. The rest of the course is parkland but a very good test.

Namport St Martin

15 or so miles south of Le Touquet this is a good golf course but with lots of water as you would expect from a course set in the marshland and has the River Authie as a major feature. A very pretty spot and while it is easy to play it is not easy to play well - excellent value.

Wimereux

Very good traditional links. The course is just wonderful - mostly flat in character but with all the bumps and hollows you expect on a links. Add terrific greens and a fairway irrigation system you have an excellent course for an excellent price. The course is placid in calm but bites hard in the wind - and it is often windy. Most enjoyable.

Bondues

Two excellent courses at a high class venue. Trent Jones course is big and bold set up with wide fairways and lots of water. Hawtree is much tighter and tree lined - both are very good courses, always in superb condition. The very comfortable clubhouse completes. Not available at weekends but thoroughly recommended.

Palingbeek

The course is actually over the border into Belgium but very accessible from Lille so is included under France. Excellent parkland course with some water but not overdone. Condition is exemplary as you would expect from a quality members club.
